CENTERVILLE ASKS FOR ZONING NOW; NILES, MISSION SEEK ACTION TOO

In a session marked by harmony and single-mindedness, Centerville representatives Monday night asked the county for protective zoning for their town.

Not an objection was raised, and only a minor amendment or two were offered at the final conference with staff members of the County Planning Commission.

Concluding the meeting in the County Building, some 17 present voted unanimously in favor of a motion introduced by LeRoy Broun that:

"We ask the Supervisors and the Planning Commission to adopt this plan and immediately institute zoning procedures."

Two other towns, Niles and Mission San Jose, also took steps this week to obtain protective zoning for their fast-growing areas.

At the Centerville meeting, County Planning Director John Jay Thomas said his office will have an amended map ready to present to the Centerville Chamber of Commerce, and to his commissioners, within a week or two.

Then, Thomas said, Centerville should ask for a public hearing here — with members of the Planning Commission present— at which a final airing will be given to the zone plan. After that, hearings to zone the town should be requested. They must be held in Oakland.

As finally adopted by the local residents, Centerville's "guide"

Nearly 5500 Enroll

Jam Schools!

Double Sessions At Niles, Decoto

Township schools opened their first full week of the 1953 fall session Monday with a door-busting, record-smashing 5344 pupils enrolled.

Unable to stem the flood, five elementary schools were forced into double sessions in kindergartens, two of them—Niles and Decoto—in primary grades.

Washington Hi is using every available inch of space for classrooms, is shortening class periods, and staggering lunch hours in an effort to keep ahead of 966 enrollees.

And seven schools, including Washington Hi, are rushing new plants or additions to house the bumper crop of youngsters.

Enrollment was up almost 650 from last fall. Here is how it went, by district:

Washington Hi, 966.

Alvarado, 244.

Alviso, 105.

Centerville, 571. Kindergarten on double sessions.

Decoto, 1295 (Hillview 408, Barnard 396, Decoto 455). All kindergartens, double; plus first, second and third grades at Hillview, second at Decoto.

Irvington, 460. Kindergarten double.

Mission San Jose, 202.

Newark 629. Kindergarten double.

Niles 675. Kindergarten, first, and second grades, double.

Warm Springs 83.

St. Mary's 150.

Decoto District has about 200 more enrolled than in 1952. Washington Hi was up about 140. Newark was up more than 100, Irvington around 50, Niles 20, and Centerville 70.

The total figure is virtually double the opening-week enrollment in 1945. Then it stood at 2,680.

Plans for relief are taking this form:

WASHINGTON HI:

Supt. J. V. Goold estimates the new $1,500,000 addition cannot be occupied before January, 1955. Plans are now at the State Architect's office, and bids probably will be called in December. Meantime, Goold is faced with a 400-plus freshman class, and forsees double sessions "a certainty" next fall.

NILES:

The same prospect exists for a new $400,000 school east of Ellsworth Orchard. Work is expected to start early next year.

CENTERVILLE:

Work is ready to start on blueprints for another school in the Glenmoor Tract. The site has been reserved by Glenmoor Homes. Meantime, bond and state aid money has been earmarked for additions to the Thornton Avenue School.

IRVINGTON:

Using the library, auditorium and community building, Principal Gus Robertson hopes to stave off double sessions until 10 new classrooms can be built. Bids will be called in October.

MISSION SAN JOSE:

Application for $100,000 or more in State aid to build a $200,000

MYSTERY 'SMOG' HITS PAINT IN NEWARK, C'VILLE

A mysterious smelly "smog" which discolors paint was reported to the Centerville sheriff's substation over the week-end from at least 16 Township homes.

The "smog" appeared related to the sultry hot spell which drove the mercury into the high 90's. It was being investigated today by county health officials.

First reports were made Saturday to Sgt. William Hildebrand. They centered on Arden Street in Newark, and on Oak Street in Centerville. On Sunday morning, Lt. Joseph Sheehan was deluged with complaints from homeowners that the mystery "smell" was discoloring paint in the same area.

Deputy E. D. Chambers was detailed to investigate. He later turned his reports over to County Sanitarian Julio Juarez for further study.

Juarez said Monday the odor might be from decaying algae, a marine plant, on the Bay shore. Or it might be the result of sewage deposits, he said. Definite word awaits further investigation.

First call Sunday was from Richard A. Mendonca, 170 Oak Street, Centerville, who said he noticed the paint on his white bungalow "had turned brown and run in spots." Mendonca added he commenced smelling the "rotten-egg odor" on Saturday night.

Others reporting paint discoloration included:

Larry Alberts, 166 Oak Street; Homer D. Wolfe, 151 Oak Street; Manuel Silva, 155 Oak Street; Frank J. Silva, 189 Oak Street; Anthony Garcia, 145 Oak Street; Walter J. Fasolis, 154 Oak Street; Karl E. Nordvik, 172 Oak Street; Robert L. Moore, 192 Oak Street; Manuel W. Lewis, 171 Thornton Avenue.

Joseph E. Kettman,, 568 Arden Street, Newark; William Untiedt, 572 Arden Street; Mary J. Carrara, 566 Arden Street; Clark W. Redeker, 571 Arden Street; Ralph A. Brown, 567 Arden Street; Chester A. Bartlow, 553 Arden Street.

In San Jose, where similar phenomena were noted, experts maintained the odor is hydrogen sul-

Norris Named Superior Judge by Governor to Fill New Court Post

Allen G. Norris, dean of Washington Township's attorneys, this week was named to an Alameda County superior court judgeship by Governor Warren.

Norris will fill one of two new superior bench positions created recently by the State Legislature. The other goes to Richard Chamberlain, assistant district attorney. The county now will have 14 judges.

Member of one of the Township's pioneer families, the 51-year-old jurist was a star pole-vaulter at the University of California, from which he graduated 30 years ago.

After law school, he took up practice in Centerville and in 1926 was elected justice here, a job he held until last year.

Judge Norris has been engaged in private law practice in Centerville, but will relinquish this to accept the judgeship. The practice will be carried on by his partner, LeRoy Broun.

Judge Norris said today he expects to be sworn in within two weeks, most probaby at ceremonies in the Oakland Courthouse.

Judge Norris was notified of his elevation to the superior bench late Saturday when he returned from golfing at Sequoia Country Club. A call from Governor Warren, an old acquaintance, was waiting at the judge's Centerville home. He said when he got the governor on the phone, the State's Chief Executive told him:

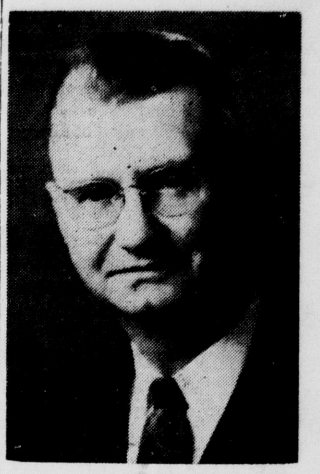
"Allen, I've decided to put you on the superior bench."

Judge Norris said he was surprised, but told Governor Warren:

"It's a great personal honor, and I hope I can justify your confidence in me." Today he added in an interview with The Register:

"It should be interpreted as particularly honoring Southern Alameda County. I'm sure it came principally because the Governor feels this area has grown to such an extent that it should be represented on the superior bench."

Judge Norris is currently president of the Southern Alameda County Bar Association. He has served as secretary of the local parlor of Native Sons of the Golden West since 1926. In addition he served five years as president of the Oakland Area Council of Boy Scouts of America.



ELEVATED—Allen G. Norris of Centerville, named this week to Superior bench.

SATURDAY SET AS LIONS CANE DAY

If a youngster tries to sell you a white cane this Saturday, don't be surprised — it's part of a Lions Club campaign to raise funds for needy children's eye-correction.

Two hundred youngsters have been aided in the past five years by the service club's program, currently headed by Irving Hird. More than $2500 has been spent.

Glass jars for donations also have been spotted throughout the Township, Hird said.

Alviso Likes USD, Decoto May Join

Annexation of the Alviso District to the Union Sanitary District loomed this week following a public meeting Tuesday night between Alviso landowners and district directors.

By unanimous vote of nearly 100 persons present in the Alviso school, residents agreed they want to join the sewage district.

Engineer Harry Goodridge had estimated it will cost $300,000 to extend pipes to the area, bounded by Alameda Creek, Marsh Road, Lowry Road and the present USD. A bond issue should cost owners about $2.50 per front foot, he said. Alvisans agreed to start circulating petitions for an election in November.

Later, Decoto Sanitary Board members, who attended as listeners, asked USD directors for a meeting to explore costs of annexing their district to USD, which serves Niles ,Centerville and Newark. USD Chairman George Coit set this session for next Wednesday night in Centerville.

TOWN YULE TREE?

A committee headed by Ken Foster was named this week to explore possibility of a community Christmas Tree for Newark at the corner of Thornton and Sycamore, and also to recommend other town Yuletide decorations.

City Status for Newark Waits on Industries' Okeh

Itching to become an independent city, Newark this week nevertheless decided to ask its tax-producing factories first.

A committee headed by Gordon Cotton reported Tuesday to the local Chamber of Commerce that home rule would cost Newarkers "under 50 cents" per $100 valuation. Then Cotton's group declared incorporation "is financially sound, feasible and possible."

Chamber President Joe Pashote told Cotton to arrange a meeting with heads of the town's industries to obtain their views on the issue. The meeting will be set soon.

Cotton recommended that if cityhood is decided upon:

1. The City of Newark's boundaries should be those of its present fire district, roughly bounded by Blacow, PG&E, Jarvis Road and the salt marshes.

2. An election should be set prior to December 15 this year if Newarkers want a city during 1954.

This is to assure that the city would get on the county property-tax rolls by February 1, deadline for fiscal year 1954.

Cotton said his committee had studied Pleasanton, Los Altos,

Doggies Won't Stay in Window

Newark Mutts Nip Pedestrians, Draw Town Wrath

Newark is going to the dogs, a victim of canine terrorism declared Tuesday before the local Chamber of Commerce.

Jack Slater, spokesman for a group of Olive Street homeowners and self-styled toothsome morsel for local bow-wows, succeeded in having a protest letter written to Supervisor Chester E. Stanley, demanding better county protection against stray pooches.

"They run everywhere," Slater complained. "I've been walking to work down George Street, but this big airdale treed me, so I took another route. Then this springer got after me.

"I'm tired when I come home and maybe I look like a suspicious character. Anyway, I was going to take him with my lunch pail when some lady hollers: 'Don't hit him or you'll have the sheriff to contend with!

"That gave me an idea and I went home and phoned the sheriff and somebody there said I had every right to defend myself against a vicious dog. But I can't tell whether he's vicious or not. The City of Newark is going to the dogs."

Slater was reinforced by Joe Nuland, who charged owners let their pets run wild during mating season. Louis Serafino advised that "in Texas, we used to have a dog-catcher."

Attorney Charles B. Snow, who had been discussing town incorporation, interposed that a dog-catcher is one of the blessings of cityhood. Then Nuland asked:

"If a dog trespasses on your property, are you allowed to shoot him?" Bill Hildebrand, a deputy sheriff, replied,

"Yes, if he molests your livestock."

"What about children — they aren't livestock—suppose they get bitten?" Nuland asked.

"No, the dog must be impounded for 14 days," Hildebrand advised, "so it can be observed for rabies."

VFW SKEET SHOOT SET SEPTEMBER 27

The rehabilitation fund of Joseph and Stanley Bernardo Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will benefit from the trap and skeet shoot to be held by the post at the Washington Township Sportsmen's field at Mission San Jose on September 27.

The field will open at 10 a.m. A barbecue will be open to the public from 2 to 4 p.m., and refreshments will be available throughout the day. The field is located at the intersection of Highway 9 and Durham Road.

QUINN TO SPEAK FOR WOMEN HERE

James Quinn, member of the State Board of Equalization for the East Bay-Central California area, will be the next speaker for Washington Township's Women for Better Government.

This announcement was made today by Mrs. Harold Korell of Niles, president of the non-partisan study group. She said Quinn will speak at Washington Union High School on September 29, at 8 p.m.

Quinn's topic is not announced, but is believed to concern enforcement of State liquor laws, which are the responsibility of the Board of Equalization.

NUMBER PLEASE? WE GOT 4,000!

Nearly 4000 Washington Township phone numbers are listed in the 1953 edition of the Southern Alameda telephone directory, distributed here this week.

This compares with about 3300 in the 1952 edition.

More than 13 pages are needed to handle Township listings, against 11 last year. The additional numbers reflect an easing of equipment shortages in the area by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co.

RITES HERE FOR JOHN D. GALVIN

Funeral services will be held Friday for John Galvin, 63, widely known in Washington Township as superintendent of the county corporation yard at Niles for more than 25 years.

Galvin died last Wednesday of a heart attack while he and Mrs. Galvin were visiting their daughter, Mrs. Juanita Stanhope, in Hampton, Va.

Stricken at Mrs. Stanhope's home shortly after his arrival by train, Galvin was taken to a hospital and succumbed a few hours later.

A former resident of Seattle, Galvin served in the army in World War I. Then he attended Oakland Polytechnic College. Upon graduation, he married, then went to work for the county in 1927, joining the staff of the Niles yard when it was opened the following year.

He was a member of the Niles Rotary Club and several civic organizations. With Mrs. Galvin, he lived on Oliver Avenue here.

Services are at 1 p.m. in Chapel of the Palms under auspices of the Elks Lodge, of which Galvin was a member. Interment will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

County Surveyor Wallace Boggs, Galvin's immediate superior, praised him highly, saying:

"John Galvin was one of our most valued men. His loss cannot be replaced."

A new superintendent for the yard probably will be chosen from civil service ranks within a few days, according to Supervisor Chester E. Stanley.

Stanley hinted some change may be made in the title and duties, to conform with recommendations made in a county-wide job survey undertaken by Boggs several months ago.

At present the post entailed maintenance of all county road equipment, which is centralized at Niles.

Cypress wood was highly prized by the ancient Greeks.

Gas and electricity are cheap in California

Among the many advantages of California living, one of the first discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Trudel when they moved West last year was the low cost of gas and electricity. They found these services cost far less here than in their former home.

With P.G. and E.'s combined rates actually lower now than in 1938, let bargain gas and electricity do more of your work . . . give you added leisure.

How P. G. and E.'s low rates save the Trudels money

In their Stockton home, the Trudels use these appliances for more pleasant, convenient living:

The Trudels' P. G. and E. bill (recent month) . . . $10.37

In their former home, the same amount of gas and electricity would cost $25.67

STATE URGED TO SET FREEWAY PLAN

State Highway authorities will be urged to disclose their plans for the Eastshore Freeway, Supervisor Chester E. Stanley declared this week.

Stanley said County Surveyor Wallace Boggs will make the request.

Several Township chambers of commerce have demanded action from the State on purchase of Freeway rights-of-way. Lack of information about these routes is blocking orderly planning and growth for this area, the businessmen contend.

Stanley said Boggs will render a report on the State reply to Lee S. Williams, chairman of Centerville's committee on planning and zoning.

'NEW LOOK' FOR OLD NILES POLE

Niles this week voted its town flagpole a face-lifting. Or maybe it was a rope-lifting.

At any rate, members moved to have the old pole repainted, caulked, given new halyards and to have the topmost ornament reguilded.

President C. W. Chrysler said the bill would come to $50.

Motorist Killed

Russell Hansen, 17, of Whittier, died Sunday in an Oakland hospital as a result of injuries received when his car overturned last Friday two miles south of Irvington on Highway 17.

The car in which Hansen was riding, driven by C. L. Mitchell, 18, Oakland, went out of control about 9.45 p.m., left the road, and was demolished.

school southwest of town has been made by the Board of Trustees. Chairman M. J. Overacker says surveys determined it would take 68 per cent of the cost of a new building to remodel the 40-year-old school now used... Condemnation proceedings have been started to get a 10-acre site.

DECOTO:

More bonds, probably $150,000 worth, will be asked soon to equip Barnard School and finance additional rooms at Hillview Crest, Supt. Harold Schoenfeld told the Alameda County Community Service Organization last week. This will mean Decoto would then be eligible for a $900,000 loan from the State, Dr. Schoenfeld explained. This money would be needed if the 600-home tract proposed across from Hillview Crest becomes a reality.

NEWARK:

The district is holding its application for State money to build a new school until October 31, according to Supt. Jack MacGregor, because it hopes to have enough new homes started by that date to seek a really sizeable sum. MacGregor's trustees have not settled on a site, but when they do, he hopes to have the second school operating by the end of 1954.

SEEK AIR CADETS

Two Air Force recruiters from Parks AFB will be at 156 South Main Street, Centerville, next Thursday to interview prospective Air Cadet trainees. These must be high school graduates between the ages of 19 and 26½.

LEMOS' DOUBLE GIVES 'CATS WIN

By TONY ROGERS

Don Lemos doubled a pair of his Bearcat teammates home in the last of the ninth inning Sunday to give the local club a 5-4 win over Eureka of Mill Valey, on the Centtrville diamond.

Trailing since the fifth frame, the 'Cats chances looked poor until Joe Dutra walked, Frank Romero lined a single to center and then Dutra and Romero each took an extra base when the fielder fumbled the horsehide.

Lemos then powdered his drive down the left-field foul line to score both runners.

Ed Romero started on the mound for the Bearcats, but was lifted in the sixth for Stan Roderick after Eureka's Tarantino belted a homer.

Score by innings:				R	H	E
Eureka	100	021	000	4	4	4
Bearcats	110	001	002	5	9	1

The Bearcats play Service Delivery of San Jose next Sunday at 1:30 p.m. on the local high school diamond.

Plans Outdoor Tea

Women for Better Government, group of non-partisan Southern Alameda County ladies interested in studying local affairs, will hold a tea next Wednesday at 2 p.m., in Sunol.

The public is urged to attend. The tea will be held in the club house garden of the Sunol Water Temple, residence of Mrs. Walter Yount.

Centerville Zoning

plan shows:

1. A commercial zone in much its present location, but with a 25-acre addition northwest on Main Street as far as the Thornton Avenue intersection, and extending north behind the new Bank of America site.

2. A "commercial service", or large-business and warehousing district south of Main Street to Joseph Street.

3. Industrial sites between Baine and Central Avenues, as far west as Blacow Road.

Only significant local amendment to the map was to extend the commercial section north of Main Street to Emerson Street, a small alley running off Parish Avenue; and to Sequoia Street, off Fremont.

The meeting was conducted by L. S. Williams, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Planning Committee.

Sidelights included a statement by Mrs. Mary Rodrigues, who is selling a 100-foot frontage now ocupied by the Edgren used car lot to the Bank of America. She said the State Division of Highways has assured another tenant, a service station on the corner of Thornton and Main, that it does not contemplate a "cloverleaf" there, and that it wants a 50-foot "arc" turn on the site.

Two property owners, Allan Walton and Burdette Williams, commented they would welcome development of shopping centers on land they own—Walton behind the new bank, and Williams at the intersection of Santos Road and Highway 17. Mrs. Rodrigues is dedicating a 60-foot street next to the bank site to permit entry to the Walton property and to other land

At the Niles Chamber on Tuesday, Bain Leask successfully moved that Thomas be asked to bring a similar zoning map to Niles for discussion with that chamber of commerce, "with a view to precise zoning in the near future."

However Leask stressed that "this is only a preparatory step," and that possible opponents "shouldn't get the idea that this means zoning," which can only come after formal public hearings.

Monday night the Mission San Jose Chamber of Commerce renewed its appeal for protective zoning, and agreed to meet with Thomas to iron out any differences with the planners' maps on October 5.

At the Centerville session, one spectator made this observation: "The Oakland Chamber of Commerce is reorienting its land planning committee with the specific purpose of getting Washington Township zoned."

Mystery Smog

phide arising from cannery wastes discharged into the Bay. When hot, muggy weather compresses the atmosphere, it intensifies the sewage odor, wafting it inland, and combining it with the paint.

However, the chemists added, the discolored paint will return to normal within a week or two.

Why the "epidemic" hit some areas and missed others was not fully explained. Some homeowners believe it was because all the houses on one street were painted at nearly the same time, with the same type of paint, which evidently reacts more strongly to the "smog."

At Tuesday's Newark Chamber of Commerce meeting, Louis Perry presented a petition bearing 80 names asking for a county probe of the smog.

"If it does that to paint, think what it does to our lungs," Perry declared.

But Dr. J. J. O'Connor said the smog "doesn't affect your tissues."

ROTARY TOLD HOW TO INFLUENCE 'EM

There is only one way to get effective results from others — whether employees, customers or friends—and that is to make them want to do what you want them to do.

This was the message of Dale Hill, public relations course director, in an address last week to the Niles Rotary Club.

Hill advised giving others recognition for work well done to obtain the best efforts from them.

SUPERVISOR CHESTER E. STANLEY'S SON WEDS LIVERMORE GIRL AT CAMP PARKS

At nuptials attended only by members of their families and close friends, Miss Marlene Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Walker of Livermore, and Staff Sergeant Michael E. Stanley, son of Supervisor and Mrs. Chester E. Stanley, were married last Sunday in Parks Air Base Chapel.

The young couple both are graduates of Livermore schools. After a honeymoon at an undisclosed location, they will reside in Livermore.

Sgt. Stanley has been in the Air Force for three and one-half years, and expects to be discharged early in 1954. He has a sister, Dorothy, employed at Santa Rita Rehabilitation Clinic; and two brothers, James, in Navy service in Japan; and Jack, a junior at Livermore High School.

The bride has been employed at the Palace Beauty Salon in Livermore.

Wedding attendants were Miss Pauline Medeiros nad Hans Neilsen.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley.

Girl Scouts Plan Recruting Program

September 16 to 23 has been set aside as an Adult Recruitment for the Hayward Area Girl Scout Council, according to Mrs. Henry Heeren, field committee chairman. The Hayward Area Girl Scout Council includes the districts of Washington Township. Hayward, San Lorenzo, Castro Valley, and Ashmont.

Representing the Township will be Mrs. Frank Margarido of Decoto, who will take any telephone inquiries concerning the formation of new troops in the Brownie, Intermediate or Senior Girl Scout age levels.

"Washington Township has girls enough waiting to join Girl Scouting to form 19 new troops, including two Senior groups," Mrs. Margarido said. "In Newark there should be two new Brownie troops, in Centerville one new Brownie and one new intermediate troop, in Irvington one new Brownie troop, in Mission San Jose there is also need for one Brownie and one intermediate troop, in Warm Springs there is also a need for one Brownie and one intermediate troop, while in Decoto and Niles there is a need for two new Brownie troops and one new intermediate troop in each community. Alvarado should also have one Brownie and one intermediate troop."

It is hoped that during the adult recruitment drive there will be enough adult interest shown so that one person in each community will serve as a community chairman, coordinating the Girl Scouting activities within the one community, Mrs. Margarido stated.

Following the recruitment drive, a tea will be held at the Hill and Valley Club in Castro Valley to welcome the new members of the Girl Scout organization, Mrs. Margarido added.

BACKING SOUGHT FOR FLOOD ZONE 6

A meeting of South Township residents interested in formation of a flood-control and drainage zone at the bond election October 4 has been called for today (Thursday) at noon in the International Kitchen.

W. D. Patterson, chairman of the County Flood Control Advisory Committee. He said the goal is a citizens' committee to back the bonds which will put Zone 6 into effect.

Purpose of the project is to open the area including Irvington, Mission San Jose and Warm Springs for development, now held back by lack of proper stormwater drainage.

Newark Rec', YCs Meeting Tonight

There will be a joint meeting of the Newark Recreation District trustees and the board of directors of the Youth Center Association Thursday (tonight) at 8 o'clock in the Youth Center building on Ash Street.

An agreement will be sought pertaining to operation and maintenance of the Youth Center building.

Mrs. Earl Willburn, district chairman, declares she is concerned about lack of public attendance at the trustee meetings, especially since the district wil spend $18,000 in tax money this year.

NILES BUSINESS IS PICKING UP

A "point 4" program for self-help for trash-littered highways near Niles was approved Tuesday after some harsh words for the State Highway Patrol program from the local Chamber of Commerce.

Members headed by Dr. T. C. Wilson volunteered to spend one evening on September 24 picking up empty beer cans of ancient vintage which allegedly mar the scenery along Highway 9 here.

Dr. Wilson led the attack on the State department for laxness in trash pickups. "We'll take a picture of the pile of cans and show it to the State," he vowed. Half-a-dozen members agreed to help.

The fiery dentist also was critical of a Highway Patrol reply to a Chamber letter asking for better traffic control at Milpitas on Sundays. Chief E. Raymond Cato replied the complaint would referred to his Santa Clara office for "corrective" action.

"That's the last of that," Dr. Wilson grunted.

NEWARK BARBECUE

Annual steak barbecue tendered Newark's firemen by the local Chamber of Commerce will be held September 28 at 6:30 p.m., in the Newark Pavilion, it was announced this week by Jack MacGregor, chairman of the committee in charge.

MISSION SAN JOSE
By REGINA SCHNEIDER

ROBERT KIRSCHNER of Maryland spent a short visit with the Bill Murphys. Bill and Robert had been squadron mates in the Pacific for three years.

A MOBILE X-RAY UNIT will be in Mission San Jose on Wednesday, October 7, to take annual x-rays of all people over 15. This is free to the public, paid for by Christmas Seal donations. The unit will be in front of the post office all day.

THE TONY OLIVERIAS of Santa Maria visited two days with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Abreu.

SORRY TO HEAR that Mrs. Rose Souza hasn't been well.

MRS. ELVA BRAYOVICH and daughter, Carol, and Sharon Phillips spent the week-end in Santa Cruz.

MR. and MRS. RICHARD BRUNELLI of Centerville held a family barbecue as a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence "Wezzer" Fernandez and family, who left Thursday for San Diego, where Weezer is stationed. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chambers and Ronnie, Lawrence Fernandez, Shirley Cunha and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fernandez.

MR. and MRS. GEORGE RODRIGUES and daughters, Dorothy and Marilyn, spent the week-end in Sacramento as guests of Mr. and Mrs. King Silva. The Rodrigues also took in the State Fair during their stay.

SEPTEMBER 9 was celebrated at the William Murphys at the birthday of Mrs. Murphy's brother, Lt. (jg) George Casterlin of Sunnyvale Naval Air Station, Alameda. Guests were: Mrs. B. M. Casterlin, Miss Barbara Hawes, and N. C. Toms of San Jose.

WHEN Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goularte sat down to relax in front of their television Saturday night, they thought that was the way they were going to celebrate their 11th wedding anniversary. Then popped up a house-full of people to help them celebrate. The guests presented them with a bed spread and lots of refreshments. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Medeiros of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alberts and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Souza and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Santos and family, Mary Edith Scott and Albert Santos of Mission, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Santos of Niles.

MR. and MRS. DONAL MEYERS had their little son, Gordon Eugene, baptised Sunday by Father John Leal at St. Joseph's Church. Shirley Pine and Richard Meyers were god-parents. Monday the Meyers left for San Diego where Donald is stationed.

CHET HOLTZ, Johnny and Eddie Feleciano took off this week for Idaho where they will spend several weeks' elk hunting. So Maude Holtz, Virginia Feleciano and Marie Feleciano (that's their wives) and Virginia Steinmetz took off for a week in Los Vegas.

MR. and MRS. ALBERT HARVEY and daughter, Lyna, and Kim McBride and son, Micky, spent Sunday at Martin's Beach.

HAROLD MILLARD has rented the former Guadalupe Inn, and expects to be open soon to sell bakery goods.

SANATORIUM ZONE ASKED AT NILES

A score of neighbors of the Mission Road Sanatorium this week besought the County Planning Commission to designate the institution on "master plans" as a hospital to prevent future complications.

And the Niles Chamber of Commerce also backed the move.

Dr. Joseph B. Enos, owner, explained he fears if his building is zoned residential at some future date, it would prevent him from remodeling—or even from rebuilding in case of fire.

Bus Depot Sold

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Malone of Newark will assume operation of the Peerless Bus Depot and fountain in Niles next Monday.

The Malones purchased the establishment from Mr. and Mrs. Manuel S. Silva of Niles, who have operated it for the past 20 months.

The Silvas plan to move to Reno shortly to operate a motel in the Nevada city. They will retain ownership of the Niles Recreation Club, next door.

KIWANIS CLUB FOR NEWARK POSSIBLE

Possibility that Newark may get a Kiwanis Club loomed today as 40 prominent Newarkers responded to an invitation to meet tonight with officers of the East Bay Kiwanis District.

The local men will greet Kiwanis Lt. Governor Jack DeRoig at a dinner meeting in the Presbyterian Church hall, and several said they believed "if enough interest is generated," a Kiwanis Club will be located in Newark.

Town representatives met two weeks ago in San Lorenzo with Kiwanians from that town, San Leandro and Hayward, which presumably would help sponsor the fledgling service organization.

The Great Seal of the United States was adopted June 20, 1782.

H. Kumamoto Dies

Services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday in Chapel of the Palms, Centerville, for Heihachi Kumamoto, 78, a native of Japan, who died September 14 at his residence on Decoto Road, Centerville, after a long illness.

He was a farmer and had lived in this district for over fifty years. His only survivor is a daughter, Mrs. Yureiho Nishita of Berkeley.

DECOTO SCHOOL REC' PROGRAM

The Decoto public school system's first summer recreation program closed last week after 5982 youngsters had used it, Director Alfred Pinard reported today.

An average of 83 children took part each day, Pinard said, principally at Barnard and Decoto playgrounds.

Swimming lessons attracted 212 young Decotoans, and 72 passed "pollywog" tests, 31 beginners' exams, and nine received the swimmer award.

The program was designed as an experiment, but success may persuade the local school board to make it an annual affair.

Assisting Pinard were Louis Pagan, Rosemary West, Diane Coughlin and Mary Smith.

CONGRATULATIONS, JUDGE!

Well, we have a superior judge in Centerville, and it couldn't happen to a nicer person than Allen Norris. They're going to put him in juvenile court, a tough hole these days, but in which he should be a round peg, with his background of youth work.

Recognition for Judge Norris makes us all a little prouder to know him. It also makes Townshippers' chests swell with the knowledge that our area is recognized and that it contains no lack of first class citizens when the call comes.

WELL, MISTER SUPERVISORS?

Did you know it's legal now for a county to have nine planning commissioners?. We didn't, but the Legislature recently made it possible, suggested they should come from rural areas. This ought to open the door for the supervisors to name another commissioner from Washington Township, where the planning's going to take place. Our choice would be Lee Williams, civic-minded rancher, who this week successfully launched zoning proceedings for the town he represents, Centerville.

A REGRETFUL LEAVE-TAKING

With shock and sadness, we bid adieu to a kind friend, John Galvin. We remember him with affection because once he told us he read one of our editorials, and liked it. We can't afford to lose many readers like that. John's gentle wit and helping hand will be missed hereabouts.

MYSTERY MAN IS SEAGOING PASTOR

(Were you one who guessed Marty Sammon was last week's man of mystery? If you had trouble with obsecure clues, this week's subject will provide you a change. We tell all—you just guess. The answer is on an inside page.)

He is only 29, but claims to be the dean of pastors of his denomination in Washington Township.
His birthplace was near Donora, Pennsylvania, where his dad was an executive in the world's largest zinc works.
After high school at Donora, he went into the U. S. Merchant Marine. It was wartime. He served 27 months, mostly in the Atlantic. His ship was bombed at Oran. He saw the cities of England and the ruins of Pompeii.
On his first voyage, five ships in his convoy were sunk by U-boats before they could clear the Gulf of Mexico. It was some satisfaction therefore, when he saw the German submarine fleet surrender to the British in the English Channel after V-E Day.
After his discharge in 1945, our subject went to college at Grove City, Pa. There he met a pretty classmate who was to become his wife a few years later.
Upon graduation, he attended theological seminary in San Anselmo, north of San Francisco. While still a student, he came to the Township to take charge of one of its churches. He was married 2½ years ago, ordained a year later.
Now he and his wife have a 10-months-old boy,
He is a Rotarian, and also chaplain of the Masonic Home.
Guess Who?

Newark City?

Campbell and soon-to-be-a-city Milpitas. It concluded that revenues from State and fines-and-fees should be about $50,000 in the first year, and that expenses of minimum services—fire, police, streets, library clerk, building inspector and health department—should be about $100,000 This would leave another $50,000 to be raised locally by the 50-cent tax.

Main benefits of incorporation, Cotton went on, would be (1) control of zoning and local services, (2) protection of the town and its industries from "encroachment" by outlying districts, (3) prevention of higher taxes from having a county "multiple service district" forced upon an unincorporated area.
"We have plenty of assessed value to support us," he said. "Over $6,000,000 in the fire district, or more than Pleasanton and Livermore combined."
However, Cotton stressed, no opinions, either from individuals or industries had been asked, and he cautioned the factories should be contacted before steps to incorporate are taken.

Joe Nuland, real estate agent, spoke for immediate action, but Cotton, Pashote, Ray Truscott and William Hildebrand, among others, counselled talking to the plant managers first.

One industriaist present, Vice-President Bernard LeMieux of Orangeburg Mfg. Co., agreed he wanted more information before taking a stand on cityhood. He welcomed the idea of "an informed committee meeting with us."
Cotton said he believed most industries will welcome cityhood, since they believe "what's good for the people is good for them," and "the community would benefit from local control."
Other committeemen to serve with Cotton are Pashote, Charles B. Snow, Tony Martin and Ed O'Mara.

TOWNSHIP 'CENTER' TO BE STUDIED

A diningroom full of sociologists and Township leaders agreed Tuesday night this area needs an organized recreation program.
Then representatives of eight local communities were named to decide:
1. Whether the program should include a recreation center,
2. How it should be financed and operated.

The decision came at the close of a meeting called in the International Kitchen by the Centerville Lions Club. The Lions summoned some 75 community representatives after they heard a recent warning from District Atty. Frank Coakley that juvenile delinquency already is a Township problem.

Coakley and several recreation district officials from neighboring areas were on hand to give their advice. Upshot of the meeting was that Miss Julia Minor, executive of the Council of Southern Alameda County Communities, a welfare agency, offered the council's sponsorship to the study committee, which will be headed temporarily by Dwight Thornburg.
Other members are Marie Brazil, Bruce Michael, Peter D. Juhl, Manuel Hidalgo, Gus Robertson, Herman Medeiros, Jack Pool and James Nunes.
The meeting opened with Thornburg presiding. Said he:
"I believe we should set a goal. I propose a 10-acre site with playgrounds, and an auditorium seating 5000 people. Even that may be too small. We're growing and we don't want to be too meager in what we go after. There could be a little theater too, for about 500."
Then he threw the meeting open to discussion. Harold Teel, Hayward recreation director, and Jack Farrell, head of a recreation district near Palo Alto, both explained functions of such agencies.

Judson Tayor, director of Newark's recreation district, pointed out his town already has taken steps against the delinquency problem; as did Manuel Hidalgo, who said Decoto schools are sponsoring recreation.

Judge Allen G. Norris, who said he is to be assigned to the juvenile court, agreed "we should find the solution ahead of the problem," but warned against too-ambitious expenditure of money.
Someone asked "how a community center in Centerville would help Decoto and Irvington," and Thornburg and Lee Williams hastened to assure the group that the Lions "didn't mean it should be in Centerville."
Father Ralph Duggan commented "those who need it most aren't interested in athletics and recreation," and that in spots where the delinquency problem is the greatest, "recreation halls are often empty and streets full of roaming packs of boys."

SUZY SEZ...

Unusual sight of the week was in Newark. A whole family was riding around in their late-model car, delivering papers in a tract. It confused the barking dogs to have three boys jump out, each with a paper, and run and toss them onto a different porch.

* * * *

If you know anyone who has recently papered their home with heavy water-proof wall paper, suggest that any leftovers can be used for picnic tablecloths. It's heavy enough to keep from blowing easily, and can be used several times.

* * * *

After having her hair cut, curled, and generally overhauled, a mother in Alvarado reports all her friends say she looks ten years younger. Now she wonders how she can explain her sixteen-year old son, if she only looks twenty-six.

* * * *

Speaking of hair, the opening of school saw a run on both beauty shops and home permanents, with little girls and big ones getting fixed for the great day. It's not the way things were when I was younger. Any girl who had curls either came by 'em naturally or had a mother skilled in making rag ringlets. Most of us wore a short Dutch cut. It may not have been flattering ,but was easy to care for, compared to the modern mother's problem of pin-curls for her daughters

"It must be love," says a Niles friend, when she sees a certain widow accompanied by her three children on every date with that good-looking bachelor.
